

CALLING ALL FOODIES AND WINE LOVERS – TO THE HILLS OF ITALY’S UMBRIA THIS SPRING!

There is no better place to visit in Italy in the spring than its ‘Green Heart’ of Umbria, and no better place to base oneself than Palazzo Seneca, a lovely Relais & Châteaux hotel that is the true essence of Umbrian hospitality.

Palazzo Seneca is set in the charming and medieval, walled city of Norcia, and along with the surrounding area, it is a destination well known for the natural beauty of its Sibilini Mountains, for its fascinating history and traditions, and for its many local delicacies --- including black truffles, prosciutti and salumi, lentils and more.

The incredibly gracious family that owns Palazzo Seneca has created a very compelling experience for their guests this spring, one that includes Michelin star dining and a cooking class with their Michelin chef.

When not focusing on the excellent food and wine of the region, guests can explore the astounding beauty of the surrounding national park and dive into the mysticism and history of the area.

The full package is based on a 3- night minimum stay in a Junior Suite or Suite and includes:

- o Breakfast buffet overlooking the Palazzo’s garden and Norcia’s historic center.

- o One 5 course dinner at Vespasia Restaurant, 1 Michelin star (beverages excluded)
